North American Saxophone Alliance 2007 Region 8 Conference at Penn State University Friday January 19, and Saturday January 20

We are pleased to announce the 2007 Region 8 Conference of the North American Saxophone Alliance to be held on the campus of Penn State University, University Park, PA. The program committee welcomes proposals for performances (i.e. chamber works, solos) papers, panels, lecture-recitals, master classes, and other presentations that relate to saxophone performance, pedagogy, research, or other areas of concern to saxophonists. The committee will give special consideration to proposals that are representative of the heritage and/or future trends of saxophone music in the following genres: jazz, commercial, world music, traditional classical music, and new music. The committee will make every effort to assemble a balanced program of performances.

The program committee will accept proposals only from members of the North American Saxophone Alliance. You may renew your membership (professional US $35.00, student/senior citizen US $25.00, youth $10) when you submit your proposal. Membership applications are available on the NASA web page.
